
Human Capital Management Solution

An application to facilitate the complex task of managing human resources. A powerful tool, which enables user to manage personnel info, leave, attendance, overtime, shift, training, payroll, provident fund, bonus, performance appraisal and income tax. Features can be tailor made too in order to suit specific needs.

Why you need it?

There was a time when businesses and organizations hired people to fill vacant positions. A side from trying to match skill sets with skill needs, employers gave scant thought to how each employee contributed to the organization's high-level strategic objectives. Today's "do more with less" parabox mandates that you extract the highest possible value from your work force. That's why; more that ever, your organization is positioned to optimized your human capital in many different ways, from consistenstly hiring the most qualified candidates to retaining the best and brightest employees.

"PraxisHRM" features a comprehensive set of HR, benefits, training, recruiting, and employee self-service features that lower costs, reduce administrative time, and empower employees. It's modular design let you choose the solution that's right for the needs of your company.

Major modules are: Personnel Info Management Shift, Attendance & Overtime Leave Management Payment Management Bonus Management Loan/Advance Management Training Management Performance Appraisal Employee Self-Service Window e-Recruiting Resources Tracking Report Suit

If you have any further inquiries, please contact us for details.